The Summer Camp Recap!!!

We can proudly boast that 184 Wilson County 4-H Members attended six different camps in May and June and a total of ten 4-H members served as teen leaders at various county, regional and state camps.

During the last week of May, a total of 33 campers attended the Central Region 4-H Junior High Camp. This group of campers spent the week at Clyde M. York 4-H Center and had the opportunity to attend fun workshops offsite at Fall Creek Falls State Park!

The State 4-H Target SMART Camp also took place the last week of May at Clyde M. York 4-H Center. Six Wilson County campers attended as well as a teen leader (Anna Crutcher). Campers learned about archery, shot guns, muzzleloading, trap shooting and much more!

During the first week of June, Wilson County attended 4-H Junior Camp. A total of 68 campers, five teen leaders, three adult leaders and both Wilson County 4-H Agents attended. These 4-H members spent a wonderful week at Clyde M. York 4-H Center! Special thanks to our rock star teen leaders (Lincoln Cline, Jeffrey Sowders, Caitlin Haynes, Phoebe O'Niel and Tiffany Jenkins) and adult leaders (Tim Coffee, Tabitha Jenkins and Ydalia Sanders) for helping provide leadership to our campers!

On June 9-11, we had 71 campers attend The Wilson County 4-H Summer Day Camp at the James E. Ward Agricultural Center in Lebanon! Campers spent three days rotating through educational and fun activities throughout the day. Of course, we had plenty of traditional 4-H activities as well... such as Gaga Ball and S'mores! Special thanks to our MANY volunteers and friends of 4-H who helped put this camp together and make it fun for our 4-H members! Teen leaders included Audrey Cline, Lincoln Cline, Jeffrey Sowders, Tiffany Jenkins, Samuel Cordray, Elijah Hancock, Phoebe O'Niel, and Caitlin Haynes. Adult leaders included Molly Cline, Tabitha Jenkins, Tim Coffee and Carolyn Binkley.
