- Decide which classes/scenarios they want to participate in
- Shop for an outfit for each class/scenario they want to participate in staying within budget (the budget will be disclosed in the classes/scenarios)
- Compose a script to be read as they model their outfit
- Model their outfit in the Central Region 4-H Fashion Show

Additional Need to Know Information:

- The Central Region 4-H Clothing Events occur each year at the State Fair in Wilson County.
- Each grade level will have three classes/scenarios to choose from. Participants may participate in multiple classes.

On the day of the Fashion Show:

- Participants may arrive wearing their outfit or they can change into it upon arrival. Participants modeling in multiple classes/scenarios will have clothing changes. Changing rooms will be available.

- A professional will be on-site to teach youth how to model on stage. Participants will learn what to expect on stage and how to best showcase themselves and their outfits.
- When it's time for the fashion show, participants will line up as directed and then model their outfits as an emcee reads their script.
