

WILSON COUNTY 4-H

Piggy Bank Pageant

At our next 4-H Club meeting, we will have a Piggy Bank Pageant! Blue ribbon winners will be invited to bring their banks to the County Piggy Bank Pageant on March 31st.

RULES

1. The bank must be constructed and built by the 4-H member.
2. The bank cannot be bigger than 12 inches in any direction. Platforms and items sticking off the bank count in the measurement.
3. Banks should be functional and have a way to put money in and take it back out without breaking it.
4. You cannot simply buy a bank and decorate it.
5. It should be a bank you created this year. Please do not reuse piggy banks from previous years.
6. Your bank can be as creative and different as you want it to be. Use any theme, supplies or design. It does NOT have to relate to 4-H or be in the shape of a pig!

This contest relates to 4th grade standards 4R15.7 and 4.EE.C.9. and 5th Grade standards 5.RI.5.7 and 5.EE.C.9. This contest may be a class requirement.

PIGGY BANK SCORECARD

Here is what we are looking for when we judge piggy banks. The best 1-2 banks in each class will receive a blue ribbon and be invited to attend the County Piggy Bank Pageant Contest.

Please note: banks larger than 12 by 12 inches will be disqualified.

Item	Description	Points
Size	Is the bank the correct size? Banks must be NO BIGGER than 12 inches in any given direction. Platforms and items sticking off the bank DO count in the measurement.	30
Functionality	Does the bank function as a bank? Can money come in and out without destroying it?	30
Creativity	Is the bank creative? Did the builder add any personality?	20
Preparedness	Is the builder confident in their ability to demonstrate how their bank works and how it was made?	10
Materials Used	Did the builder use unique materials? Banks cannot be bought and decorated... they must be made from supplies that are not already a bank.	10
Total Points:		100

The County 4-H Piggy Bank Contest will take place March 31st, 2025. If you receive a Blue Ribbon (1st Place) you will be invited to bring your bank to the county contest. More information about the county contest will be given to the first place winners at the next club meeting!

"TO LEARN BY DOING"

The 4-H slogan is to learn by doing. This slogan represents the 4-H model of "hands on learning." 4-H members learn by participating in educational activities and programs!
